903 Online Privacy Policy and Practices

Effective 10/30/2014

The following is the First American Trust (FSB) online Privacy Policy. We value and respect your privacy and recognize the sensitivity of information that you share with us while accessing our website. This document outlines our practices regarding First American Trust website activities.

Collection of Information

Visitors to the First American Trust website can learn about our products and services without providing any personal information. At First American Trust, we track user activity on our website, but do not collect or retain personally identifiable information from such tracking. We do retain personally identifiable information such as your name, telephone number and email address when you provide this information to us in the “contact us” section of our website. We use the information to respond to your request. Like most websites we use “cookies,” small text files that websites can use to recognize repeat users and facilitate their ongoing access to and use of the site. We do not use cookies to collect personally identifiable information, but only to collect information related to the characteristics of your computer, or when and how you reached the site.

Web Browser 'Do Not Track' Signals

We do not respond to web browser 'do not track' signals at this time because we do not allow third parties to collect personally identifiable information of visitors to our website to track their online activities.

Sharing

We do not share personally identifiable information with service providers with whom we work, such as data processors, in order to market products and services to you.

Services and Advertisements by Third Parties

First American Trust does not allow other entities to advertise on our website.

Policy Updates and Effective Dates

If we make updates to this Policy, we will update the Policy with the changes and revise the “date of most recent update” posted at the top of this Policy. Any updates to the Policy become effective when we post the updates on our website. Your use of our website following the update to the Policy means that you accept the updated Policy.
